

Mercanti di Mare Hotel, Salina's Island

The charming island of Salina, situated in the Aeolian archipelago, is the evocative scenery from which emerges the Hotel Mercanti di Mare. The Hotel is very centrally located, facing the piazza of Santa Marina Salina. Upon arriving on the island the Hotel is easily accessed by foot, a short distance from the touristic port as well as the commercial port.

Hotel Mercanti di Mare offers nine well-equipped and tastefully furnished rooms. Each room is equipped with a television, telephone, mini-bar, hairdryer, safe box, and air conditioning. Two of the nine rooms are superior rooms, offering a terrace with a sea view. The Hotel also offers numerous services to ensure you a more pleasant stay. The Hotel boasts a magnificent terrace where breakfast is served, to begin the day enjoying the calm and magic that the panorama offers.

In the late afternoon, you can sample excellent wines and local delights served during l'aperitivo. In recent years, l'aperitivo at Hotel Mercanti di Mare has become an appointment not to be missed for all who wish to relax after a day at sea, as dinnertime approaches.

The island of Salina is reachable from the airports of Catania, Palermo, Reggio Calabria and Naples as well as from the ports of Milazzo and Messina.
